

PUBLIC
RECORD
OFFICE

The National Archives

(c) crown copyright

Revenants and hereditaments wheresoever lying or being as also my Goods chattels negroes and personall estate wheresoever as well in Antigua as England or wheresoever dispersed And I doe Appoint my said Brother William Marshall full and sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all others in Witness whereof I have hereunto sett my hand and seal the above mentioned Eighth of October One thousand seven hundred and nineteen John Marshall.
Sealed published and declared this my last Will in the presence of ffai. Willerton Will. Willerton ffai. Willerton

Probatum

fuit huiusmodi Testamentum apud London totam venerabili viro Gulielmo Strahan Regum Sottore Surrogato venerabilis et Egregii viri Johannis Bethsworth Regum Sottore Sottoris curia prerogative Cantuariensis Magistri Custodis sive Commissarii legitime constituti quarto die mensis Februarii Anno Domini Millesimo Septingentesimo vicesimo Inamento Gulielmi Marshall.
Executoris in dicto Testamento nominatim Commissa fuit Administratio omnium et singulorum bonorum iurium et creditorum dicti defuncti de bene et fide liter Administrando eadem ad Sancta Dei Evangelia iurat. &c.

Testis
Georgij Mordant

George Mordant

of Over Calton in the Parish of Northill in the County of Bedford Gent being of perfect health and understanding praises be God do make this to be my last Will and Testament in manner following I resigne my soul to Almighty God and my body I commit to the Earth to be decently buried at the Discretion of my Executor and for my worldly Estate I dispose as followeth I give and confirme unto Margaret my wife all such lands and Revenants as are now in the Occupation of John Croft as she is joynured in to hold to her for her life and after her Decease the same and also all other my lands Revenants and hereditaments wheresoever as I shall die seized of or have any right unto I give unto my Brother John Mordant for his life and after his Decease to the heirs of his body lawfull to be begotten and for want of such issue then to my Cousin John Mordant of London younger son of my Uncle James Mordant deceased and to his heirs for ever I give to my daughter Mary Mordant all my Jewells and Gold Plate at the Age of twenty one years or Day of Marriage whichever shall first happen and the use of them till then I give to my said wife she giving Bond to my Executor for the safe delivery of them according to this my Will and if my said daughter shall dye before her said marriage or one and twenty years of Age then I give all my said Jewells and Plate to my Brother John and his Executors I give to my Sister Britan five shillings And whereas I owe monie to my father Mr. John Mordant upon two Bonds one dated 19th day of December 1716 and the other dated 14th day of Sep^r 1717 and besides the most of the household Goods that are in my dwelling house belong to my said father he having an Inventory dated 16th Sep^r 1717 wherein is signed under my own hand for his taking and carrying them away therefore I make him my said father sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament that he may first pay himself all that shall be due to him upon the said Bonds and all such his Goods again as are mentioned in the said Inventory and after all other my debts funeral charges and legacies are paid then what shall be left of my personall estate I give to my said

Brother John and his Executors in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourth day of July Anno Domini 1552 George Mordeant signed sealed published and delivered by the said George Mordeant as and for his last will and Testament in the presence of his wife in this presence have subscribed our names as witnesses hereunto Joseph King William Deves juner Sarah Smith

Probatum

fuit huiusmodi Testamentum apud London coram venerabili viro Gulielmo Philippo equum doctore in iure venerabilis et egregii viri Johannis Bellesworth equum etiam doctore Curie prerogative Cantuariensis magistri custodis sive Commissarii legitime constituti Anno quarto die februarii Anno Domini Millesimo septingentesimo vicesimo in iuramento Johannis Mordeant Executoris in dicto Testamento nominat Cui Commissa fuit Administratio omnium et singulorum bonorum iurium et creditorum dicti defuncti de bene et fideliter administrando eadem ad sancta Dei Evangelia iuravit.

Seeing

nothing more certaine hereunto and nothing more uncertaine hereunto hereof I Thomas Greig Citizen and Merchant of London do make this my last will and Testament in manner following that is to say my soul I commend to God hoping to be saved thro' the merits of Jesus Christ my only saviour and Redeemer my body I commit to the earth to be decently but privately buried at the discretion of my dear wife and Executors and containing with temporall goods and Estate as it hath pleased God to bestow upon me in this life I devise the same as follows that is to say I give to my said wife ten pounds and to my dear Mother five pounds for mourning apparel and to all my children decent mourning apparel to be provided by my said wife containing the rest of my personal Estate that is to say with part thereof as by this will of the City of London is at my disposal I devise the same as follows that is to say I give my said wife my dear little daughter and daughter and dear appoynted wife were given me by her father Sir William Mashingbird and I further give and devise to her the bed in the chamber where she usually lodge with the curtains and all things thereunto belonging and two pair of my best sheets and four pillowcases with the chairs and stools and China ware and other furniture used and being in the said chamber and in the closets belonging to the same and the furniture in the dressing room adjoining to the said chamber Item I give to my said Mother twenty pounds per Annum for her life to be paid her quarterly from the time of my Decease Item I give to my dear daughter all and every shilling and pence of money which she oweth to me Item I give to my eldest son William five hundred pounds only there being Estates in Lands to him descended and to come to him as heir at law to me after my Decease and the Decease of my said Mother the residue of my said personal Estate I would have divided into four equal parts or shares and I give the same to my other four children that is to say my Daughters Elizabeth and Anne and my sons Andrew and Thomas severally an equal share thereof to be paid to them severally as follows viz to my said Daughters at their respective Ages of One and Twenty years

Teste
 Thomas Greig
 a witness

Witness

Witness